

CALL FOR PAPERS

Dear Members and Friends of the National Economic Association (NEA),

The National Economic Association invites proposals for sessions and papers to be presented at the annual meetings of the Allied Social Science Association \(ASSA\).

DATE: January 6-8, 2017

PLACE: Chicago, IL

PROPOSAL SUBMISSION DEADLINE: April 15, 2016

Proposals for complete sessions are preferred, along with the name(s) of organizers who will take primary responsibility for communicating with session participants. Please upload proposals to <https://nea.submittable.com/submit>. Full session proposals are desired.

Presentation requires NEA membership.

Program Chair Rhonda Sharpe will help organize sessions. Sessions on any topic will be considered with special attention given to full session proposals.

We are especially interested in sessions on the following topics:

Gender Inequality: the Intersectionality of Race, Ethnicity and Gender
The History of Blacks/African Americans in the Economics Profession
The Impact of Family Structure on Poverty Rates, Child Welfare, and Wealth
The Economics of Fertility
Economics of Education: Historically Black Colleges and Universities

Session proposals should include the following:*

- 1) Session Title and Abstract (250 word limit)
- 2) Primary & two secondary JEL classification codes that best describe the panel
- 3) Name of session organizer and moderator
- 4) Titles and abstracts of proposed session papers (250 word limit each)
- 5) At least three (3) potential discussants
- 6) Contact information and affiliations of organizer, moderator, authors and discussants
- 7) Format for any submission is strictly MS Word or PDF.

*Single paper submissions are also considered. Please include author's contact information, JEL classification codes, abstract and a potential discussant.